

ICS Workshop 2004: January 3rd-10th

Senior Researcher: Vinh Kim Nguyen, physician and medical anthropologist, McGill University, Montreal

Workshop: Public Health and (Re)Emerging Diseases: From Risk Society to the Government of Life

Participants and their subjects:

- Keiko Inoue, Stanford University, School of Education (Stanford, USA):
“Global Health, From Charity to Right: The Institutionalization and Thematic Changes of the Global Health-Related Organizational Field.”
- Frederic Boudier, King’s College, Centre for Risk Management (London, UK):
“A Contribution to Transnational Risk Analysis: Comparative Analysis (France - Great Britain) of Risk Perception Related to Human Health Issues.”
- Iain Wilkinson, School of Social Policy, University of Kent (Canterbury, UK):
“The Sociology of Suffering.”
- Elisio Macamo, University of Bayreuth, Department of Sociology (Bayreuth, Germany): “The Domestication of Savage Lives: Development Aid and Transnational Risks in Africa”
- Thomas Oleson, Department of Political Science, University of Aarhus (Aarhus, Denmark): “Influence and Power in the Transnational Right to Health Campaign”
- Karin E. Johnson, University of Washington, Department of Family Medicine (Washington, USA): “Binational Public Health at the U.S.-Mexico Border”
- Richard Freeman, University of Edinburgh, School of Social and Political Studies (Edinburgh, UK): “Learning by Meeting. Health Politics through Cross-National Comparison”
- Narine K. Movsisyan, Center for Health Services, Research and Development, American University of Armenia, (Yerevan, Armenia):
“Big Tobacco as a Pioneer of Globalization”
- Paulo Esteves, Pontificia Universidade Catolica des Minas Gerais, Department for Political Science and International Relations (Minas Gerais, Brasil):
“Politicizing Public Health: Brazilian Foreign Policy and HIV/AIDs Pandemic”
- Changcheng Zhou, Department of Sociology, Wuhan University (Wuhan, PR China):
“Attack SARS: Public Health as a Transnational Challenge”
- Marine Adamyan, Health Program Manager with World Vision Armenia (Yerevan, Armenia): “HIV/AIDS as a Transnational Challenge. How can Media and NGOs respond to this challenge? A case from Eastern Europe”